The Five Keys for Manifesting

April 15, 2026, 7:00 pm – 8:30 pm

Do you wonder how some people seem to easily attract luck and success?
Do you have a desire to create change in your life or attract abundance, relationships, better health, or fun experiences, but feel stuck or blocked?
How do you see yourself living your dreams?

This workshop will give you the keys to manifest positive change and bring your dreams into reality.

Manifestation starts with a desire for change – a want or need for something different or better. We will explore how our beliefs and feelings play a role in our experience.

Learn how to tune into the frequency that moves thought and desire into form.
You are a limitless creator of your reality. The time to create is now.
